

CAPITAL

YOUTH MUSIC

Capital Youth Music engages young people from diverse communities across Cardiff and the Vale of Glamorgan. It is run by musicians, teachers, parents, and young people, providing musical opportunities post-Covid.

Concert in the prestigious Dora Stoutzker Hall, Royal Welsh College of Music and Drama, Monday 17 July 2023, 7.30 pm.

Capital has partnered with Glamorgan Music School, Barry and the Vale of Glamorgan, for this event and we are seeking financial support to contribute to the concert cost.

The concert will feature eight ensembles and audience of 250-300 is expected, made up of the families of children from across Cardiff and the Vale of Glamorgan, as well as invited VIPs from both Council and Senedd seats. This sponsorship opportunity runs from 1 April 2023 – 17 July 2023.

Benefits include:

- Introduction to invited VIPs
- Promotion of sponsors at the concert through verbal credits, as well as prominent logos and supporting text in the programme and all concert promotional material
- Dedicated social media promotional campaign on our Facebook, Twitter, and Instagram channels, featuring sponsors logos

Levels of sponsorship available: £250, £500 or £1,000
