

Llangollen 2023

Llangollen International Musical Eisteddfod returns from 4-9 July 2023, for its first full-length festival since the pandemic. The Eisteddfod has been nominated for a Nobel Peace Prize and past performers include Luciano Pavarotti, Shirley Bassey and The Manic Street Preachers.

Opportunities available include evening concert sponsorship, naming rights for outside stages and the annual Parade which attracts over 10,000 people to Llangollen. Also, on offer is support of competition prizes, talks and language strands, an annual inclusion project, and the chance to be involved with a number of large-scale future commissions with significant community impact.

The timescale of this opportunity is March – July 2023.

Benefits include:

- Sharing of marketing assets via social channels, in printed materials and across the Eisteddfod site
- VIP entertainment and concert tickets
- Day attendance tickets for staff members
- CPD and team building sessions for staff, performance opportunities

Sponsorship packages start at £500 + VAT.