

National Youth Arts Wales is the charity for young performers and creatives right across Wales, from ages 11-25. We provide the stepping-stone between grass-roots arts activities and professional creative industries, helping young people to achieve their goals in the arts.

This summer, our national ensembles will perform at some of Wales's top arts venues such as St David's Hall, Sherman Theatre and Royal Welsh College of Music and Drama (Cardiff); St David's Cathedral (St David's, west Wales); and Prichard-Jones Hall (Bangor).

Timescale is by the end of June, Summer event season 2023 runs from July to November.

Benefits include:

- Verbal credit from the stage at performances
- Free tickets to performances, invitations to pre-concert events
- Opportunities to host private events for your guests, and to meet some of the performers before the show
- Opportunities for company publicity placements at events
- Logo credit on digital programme
- Logo credit on NYAW website for one year
- Opportunities for promotion and PR, inclusion on press releases
- Credit on social media activity, reaching a largely young audience
- Access to a young audience base across the whole of Wales – we have approximately 400 (ensemble) members aged 16-22 this year
- Photo call with members and key staff
- Association with a national cultural brand

Sponsorship packages start at £1,000 + VAT.
