

CANOLFAN MILENIWM CYMRU WALES MILLENNIUM CENTRE

Wales Millennium Centre is the national arts centre for Wales.

Dros Nos is its annual sleepover event taking place in the autumn for young people aged 16 – 25 from across south Wales. They have access to workshops, open mic sessions, our digital experiences, free tickets to see an in-house production, meet the people whose story inspired the production and get to sleep in its iconic building. The event is targeted at young people who have less opportunities to access the arts and aims to improve their confidence and skills.
